

How to Apply for the Migrant Literacy Grant

Application

Any district that would like to participate in the Migrant Literacy Grant is asked to complete an application with the number of students they intend to serve and an authorized district signature verifying that the money will be spent solely for this purpose.

Final Report

Districts will complete and submit a short, one-page final report to EED in the spring describing the book distributions and any associated activity. This is all the paperwork that is required. The who, what, when, and where of the book distributions will be a local decision for the district to make.

Important Dates

FY18 Application due date: May 31, 2018

FY18 Final Report due date April 30, 2019¹

FY19 Application due date: May 31, 2019

¹ Districts will not be reimbursed until Final Report is turned in.

Migrant Education Literacy Grant

The Alaska Department of Education and Early Development's Migrant Literacy Grant is a grant-based program for the purchase of literary materials for migrant students. Allocation size depends on the number of qualifying migrant students in a district.

Supplemental Services

Districts may use the Migrant Book Program as a Supplemental Service by providing either Literacy Support OR a Literacy Event with an Instructional Service to their migrant students.

What is Literacy Support?

Book(s) provided through the migrant book program.

What is Literacy Event with an Instructional Service?

Book(s) provided through the migrant book program or other sources AND participation in related literacy instruction/activities led by a certified teacher.

Certified teacher must be paid using migrant funds.

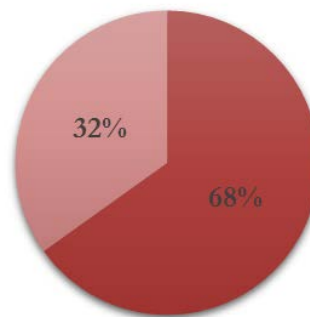

Ordering Books

The only allowable use of the Migrant Literacy Grant is for the purchase of books and reading materials for distribution to eligible migrant students. The money comes in the form of a reimbursement. Book orders should be placed directly with vendors.

Quick Facts

- Money can be used to buy books, magazine subscriptions, and e-books.
- Awarded money can also be used for expenses associated with running migrant family literacy events and literacy activities relating to the book distributions.
- Purchasing gift cards is not allowed.
