Description of Professional Development:

GENERAL:

This evidence-based course is designed for any educator PreK-12, but specifically for anyone who teaches beginning reading skills. This course provides foundational knowledge about evidence-based instructional practices that are practical and applicable regardless of the reading program being used at your site.

Participants spend approximately 45 hours completing literacy modules in an asynchronous online course. Course modules include oral language, phonological awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, sentence structure, text structure, and comprehension.

This course is fully asynchronous, meaning participants complete the modules on their own time at their own pace.
