

Candace Nielsen is a 2010 MEHS alumni.

Candace resides in Wasilla.

Candace graduated from MEHS in 2010 and currently works for The Aleut Corporation as the Director of Regional Strategy and Policy. She is an active follower of the school and enjoys seeing the work that students and alumni are accomplishing.

Candace values connection and collaboration and would like to bring a perspective that prioritizes clear communication, shared goals and making sure decisions reflect the needs and values of the communities that MEHS serves. She has a strong passion for cultural heritage and thinks it's important to keep cultural identity and a sense of belonging at the center of student experience.

Candace thinks that what makes her uniquely qualified for the Alumni Representative position is that she feels her experience at MEHS has shaped her understanding of the impact that the school can have on students' lives, thus giving her a lasting commitment to the school's success.
