

ALYESKA READING INSTITUTE (ARI)

ARI is a division within DEED specifically designed to support districts and provide services for the successful implementation of the Alaska Reads Act.

ARI SUPPORT OF AK READS

K-3
MTSS PLAN

EARLY LITERACY
SCREENERS

PARENT
ENGAGEMENT

INDIVIDUAL READING
IMPROVEMENT PLAN

READING INTERVENTIONS &
SUPPLEMENTAL PROGRAMS

WHY ARI?

ADULT-CENTERED SERVICES & SUPPORTS

ALIGNED TO SOR

ARIs PD is grounded in the Science of Reading & aligned to the AK Reads Act components

DEED APPROVED INTERVENTIONS

All interventions & supplemental materials pre-approved

COLLABORATION & EXPERTISE

ARI has the expertise & ability to collaborate with your staff on the Reads Act components and the implementation of high-quality reading instruction

JOB EMBEDDED LEARNING

Instructional staff can observe high-quality reading instruction being delivered through ARI tutoring services to enhance their own knowledge and skills

STUDENT-CENTERED TUTORING SERVICES

ALIGNED TO SOR

ARIs intervention programs & supplemental materials are aligned to the six components rooted in the Science of Reading & aligned to the AK Reads Act components

SUPPLEMENTAL SUPPORT

Tutors can offer 1-on-1 or small group attention & personalized instruction, which may not always be possible in a classroom setting

FLEXIBILITY

ARI tutors can provide services during the school day, before or after school, and during the summer break

IMPROVED STUDENT OUTCOMES

ARI's model is aligned to the principles of the High-Impact Tutoring Model developed by the Annenberg Institute at Brown University

COST NEUTRAL

ARI provides intervention materials & tutoring services at no cost

Please visit the DEED Reading Resources page to access information on the implementation of the AK Reads Act.