

The John D. Shaw Elementary School Residency held March 23-April 3, 2009 in Wasilla, Alaska with artist Lynn Marie Naden from Homer Alaska was only one of the 41 Artist in Schools residencies held during the 2008-2009 School year. This program is part of the Arts in Education Program of the Alaska State Council on the Arts with funding from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Rasmuson Foundation.

“The school student body sculpture was stunning, to see around 480 figures all together is quite something. I saw a sense of unified togetherness that seemed to really communicate what the Shaw Sun Dogs are all about” Artist Lynn Marie Naden

Students at John D. Shaw Elementary School creating townscapes and landscapes. Every student had part in sculpting the different scapes.
