PERMIT REVOCATION OR DEBARMENT

A person authorized to use the Silver Hand seal who is convicted of an offense under AS 45.65.060 will have their permit privileges automatically revoked on the date of conviction; and is barred from any further participation in the Silver Hand program. After notice and opportunity for hearing, the Council will, in the Council's discretion, revoke a permit for failure to comply with requirements of AS 45.65.010 – 45.65.070 including the payment of fees, and this chapter.

ALASKA STATE COUNCIL ON THE ARTS SILVER HAND PROGRAM & PERMIT APPLICATION

ALASKA STATE COUNCIL ON THE ARTS

is a state arts agency that fosters development of arts for all Alaskans through education, partnerships, grants and services. The Alaska State Council on the Arts is the sole administrator of the Silver Hand Program and manager of Silver Hand permits.

THE SILVER HAND PROGRAM is the only state sanctioned Alaska Native artists and arts authentication program. The Council is responsible for the design, method of affixing, preparation, issuance, and control of the Silver Hand seal; issuance of permits to use the seals and fee collection; supervision of the use of seals; enforcement of the law regarding seals; establishment of forms and fees for the applicants and permits to be used or issued; period for which the permits are valid; and procedures for renewing the permits. An Alaska Native person who creates or crafts an original article of authentic Alaska Native art in the state and who is a resident of the state may obtain a permit to identify their work. The Silver Hand registry is public record.

THE SILVER HAND SEAL

guarantees consumers that an article bearing the seal is an original piece of art created in the state by an Alaska Native artist living in Alaska. The seal may only be affixed to original articles of authentic Alaska Native art. The seals may only be used after receiving a permit from the Council.

TO APPLY

an eligible Alaska Native person must submit an application, required support documents and permit fee to the Council. Applications are reviewed within 30 days of receipt. Incomplete applications are not accepted. Documents and fees are returned to ineligible applicants.

APPLICANTS

are awarded a two year permit to help promote and market their artwork. A two year permit card is issued and 100 free tags are provided annually. It is the permit holder's responsibility to reorder the second year supply of free tags by submitting a reorder form provided by the Council. Additional tags may be purchased at 20 cents/tag.

PERMITS

expire two years from the date issued. A permit must be renewed by submitting a completed renewal application 30 days prior to the expiration date of the current permit. The permit holder may use a representation of the Silver Hand seal only in advertising of that permit holder's art, which may include; personal catalogs, letterhead, business cards, in-store and other advertising, and for other similar purposes related to the permit holder's artwork for the duration of an active permit. The permit and tags are non – transferable and may not be shared with, bartered or sold to any other individual or any business.

OTHER ALASKA BRANDING PROGRAMS

Alaska Native artists may be eligible for a Made in Alaska permit. Call 907-272-5634 for information.
