EMPLOYABILITY

A student who meets the content standard should:

1) develop and maintain a work ethic necessary for success in the workplace that includes honesty, integrity, dependability, punctuality, self-discipline, initiative, reliability, accuracy, productivity, respect, and perseverance;

2) understand how to apply skills and academic knowledge in a variety of work settings;

3) understand the process for seeking employment including résumé development, application completion, interview skills, and appropriate dress for work settings;

4) understand the process for developing self-employment opportunities including marketing studies, business plan development, and managing business finances;

5) understand how an individual job fits into the overall organization and how the organization fits into the overall economy;

6) understand the need for safe practices in workplaces; and

7) understand employer and employee rights and responsibilities.

A student should be able to develop and be able to use employability skills in order to effectively make the transition from school to work and lifelong learning.

A student should identify and appreciate personal interests, aptitudes, abilities, and priorities;

1) identify possible career options, considering both employment and self-employment, and understand how changes in the workplace affect career choice;

3) use labor market information to identify occupational and economic trends and opportunities, and evaluate possible career options;

4) identify education and/or training needed for career options and advancement, and develop a career plan; and

5) identify resources available to support education and training related to career possibilities.