Sue Hull Joins State Board of Education

JUNEAU – Sue Hull of Fairbanks was sworn in as a member of the State Board of Education & Early Development at the board's meeting in Juneau on March 7.

Gov. Sean Parnell appointed Hull to fill the seat for the Fourth Judicial District, replacing Geri Benshoof, whose term expired. Hull's term runs from March 1, 2013, to March 1, 2018. She previously served on the state board from 1982 to 1987.

Hull is co-owner of Ben Lomond Inc., a property management and residential construction firm. She has held a seat on the Fairbanks North Star Borough School Board since 2004 and currently serves as president of the Association of Alaska School Boards. Additionally, she is a past president of the Alaska PTA.

"Preparing young Alaskans for a rapidly changing, hyper-connected and globally competitive world demands new ways of thinking about our schools and the work they do," Hull said. "I'm looking forward to the challenge."
