

American Rescue Plan Act Evidence-Based Afterschool Competitive Grant
 Intent to Award List, June 2022

Organization	Project Description	Total Score- 175 pts	Scored Rank	Amount Requested	Proposed Award Amount
See Stories	New Media & Oral Traditions will meaningfully engage 30+ educators in professional development and 450+ Alaska Native and English Language Learner (ELL) youth in 30+ after-school hours of Culturally Responsive Career & Technical Education (CTE) in the two-year funding cycle.	539	1	$274,054.00	$254,473.88
Alaska Humanities Forum	Thrive Together will be an afterschool program for middle and high school students in Anchorage and will include field trips, cultural story-telling, art, discussions, etc. It will expand an existing program called Ilakucaraq Project to include more students.	516	2	$660,834.00	$613,619.92
Covenant House Alaska	Through "Covey Academy," Covenant House Alaska will offer afterschool programming to include vocational skills learning, career transition, and workforce skills.	514	3	$483,305.48	$448,775.19
Dillingham City School District	The Dillingham City School District (DCSD), in partnership with, the local public radio station, KDLG, proposes the New Extracurricular Technology (NEXT) program to provide and expand communications, technology and vocational education afterschool programs for students in 6th -12th grade. Afterschool programming includes coding, robotics, and vocational activities such as welding and auto shop.	501	4	$389,696.20	$361,853.89
UAA	"A Middle College for Rural Alaska" (MCRA) is a postsecondary vocational program managed by Prince William Sound College (PWSC) that provides up to 240 students with the ability to earn 2,080 dual enrollment credits, 840 high school credits, 280 industry certifications, and 40 Occupational Endorsement Certificates (OECs) in the vocational tracks of Information Technology and Emergency Responder. MCRA brings motivated high school students to PWSC for 12 weeks during their senior year to complete a mixed vocational-academic dual enrollment program of study.	489	5	$739,200.00	$686,386.97
Chatham School District	Haa Aaní : Haa Yaasí Haa: Our Land, Our Harvest(OLOH) will serve K-12 students by providing career readiness skills, entrepreneur training, and hands-on science learning through hydroponic farm activities.	482	6	$595,993.31	$553,411.85
Camp Fire Alaska	CampFire will provide interventions and before/after school support at 3 high needs school in Anchorage. The Learning Pods Program will target students who are experiencing a variety of adverse events to include: learning loss from the pandemic; homelessness and/or are in foster care; live in a non-English speaking home; are experiencing some form of trauma in their life and in some cases more than one; have parents who work outside the home in the out of school hours, and are economically challenged.	479	7	$720,678.00	$669,188.30