

Get ready for spring!

Access the Course:

Farm to ECE eLearning Course

COURSE DETAILS:

- Completely FREE virtual training
- Alaska SEED Approved
- 100% Online – Learn at Your Own Pace
- Access the course at: <https://education.alaska.gov/elearning/GuideFarmToEarlyCareAndEducation>

- Boost your professional development
- Earn SEED-approved learning hours
- Prepare meaningful farm-to-ECE activities for your students

.....

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN:

- How gardening and Alaska Native traditional foods fit into Farm-to-ECE
- How to bring farm-to-ECE concepts into your program
- How nutrition education can use gardening for learning
- Ways to strengthen connections with local food systems
- Resources you can use

This training is presented by:

Who Should Enroll

Administrators operating the Child and Adult Food Program (CACFP), childcare providers, early educators, directors, and ECE program staff interested in local foods, subsistence, and gardening