ServSafe Training

Alaska regulations and the Municipality of Anchorage require food establishments to have at least one Certified Food Protection Manager on site. The ServSafe training will prepare attendees for the Certified Food Protection Manager’s exam by covering the following five key areas: basic food safety, personal hygiene, cross-contamination and allergens, time and temperature, and cleaning and sanitation. ServSafe Essentials, 5th Edition must be purchased by attendee in advance. You may purchase from www.ServSafe.com ($50.50) or you may find a copy at www.Amazon.com.

Cooks Training

Chef John Layton, and CNP staff will cover the meal pattern, standardized recipes, production records, The Food Buying Guide, basic sanitation and safety, basic vegetable cuts, stock preparation, proper cooling, labeling and storing products, and how to create delicious meals with more whole grains, vegetables, and nutrients. There will be plenty of hands on cooking throughout the two-day training.
