

The MyPlate Anniversary Celebration Starts this Sunday, June 2nd

MyPlate's 2nd birthday is on June 2, 2013 and USDA is throwing a week-long virtual party. We're asking everyone to wish MyPlate a Happy Birthday on Facebook! The sample messages and images below can be used throughout the week of June 2-8 to share with your Facebook followers and friends. You can also create custom MyPlate messages for your Facebook pages.

Twitter fans can participate, too! Let your Twitter followers know they can join the party by sharing the tweets below. Make sure to mention @MyPlate in your posts and link to MyPlate's new Facebook page: www.facebook.com/myplate.

Partners and fans are also welcome to use the attached images and messages to create a Birthday Wish on Pinterest or Instagram. We are excited to get the celebration started and invite you to party with us all week long. Visit our Facebook page often – to highlight the birthday we will have new MyPlate Kids' Place posts throughout the week.

Happy Birthday MyPlate!

Highlight the food groups on your lunch line's name cards and menu boards using free food group graphics from Team Nutrition.

The graphics are part of a collection of Serving Up MyPlate resources that reinforce healthy eating messages in the elementary school classroom, cafeteria, and at home. Schools participating in the school meal programs can order free print Serving Up MyPlate materials using the Team Nutrition Order Form.
